

March 7, 2022 Argyle Village Board Meeting

Those in attendance: Mayor Wesley Clark, Trustees Anthony Montello, Joy MacKenzie, Charles Edwards, Water Commissioner Garry Robinson, Ryan Talbot, Clerk Joyann Stimpson, Sarah Huggins, Jonathan MacKenzie, Glenn Bristol, Carol Kuhr, Darren Smith, Heather and Richard McWhorter, Gary Miller, Pam Cassles, Amy and Arlin Wells. Participating through Zoom are Trustee McCotter, Joanne McDowell, and Mary Lou Sweet.

Mayor Clark gave a summary of the history and development of the water system, starting with the pumping from Summit Lake to the purchase of the properties where the wells were drilled.

Commissioner Robinson informed the residents how the water bills were calculated and what changes will be made in future billing.

Darren Smith addressed the Board about his willingness to accept the write in vote for Mayor in the March 15, 2022 elections.

The Board was informed that Kyle Reid wanted to waiver the time restrictions on getting his license to sell beer and wine in his tavern, and it was granted.

Next Board meeting is set for April 4, 2022 at 5:30 P.M. at the Yellow House.

On a motion made by Trustee McCotter, seconded by Trustee MacKenzie, and carried, the Clerk was allowed to pay warrants for the month of March, 2022.

On a motion made by Trustee Montello, seconded by Trustee Edwards, and carried, the minutes were accepted as written.

On a motion made by Trustee McCotter, seconded by Trustee MacKenzie, and carried, the meeting adjourned at 7:01 P.M.

Argyle Village Clerk

Joyann Stimpson